NASHVILLE, Feb. 12.—A dispatch from Cumberland city, received this morning says one gun boat appeared in sight of Fort Donelson this morning about 10 o'clock, and opened fire on the Fort, without injury.

The Fort returned the fire when the boat retired.

The Federals have landed in force and a battle with the light artillery commenced this evening. It is reported that from ten to twelve thousand had landed.

When the steamer left Fort Donelson the battle was raging, but I know nothing further.

THE LARGEST CIRCULATION IN WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA.

THE CATAWBA JOURNAL, AND THE DAILY BULLETIN,

PUBLISHED BY E. H. BRITTON, CHARLOTTE, N. C.

THESE Papers (embracing the TRI-WEEKLY BULLETIN,) established in the town of Charlotte, N. C., affords unusual advantages to Advertisers both at home and abroad, as the editions, weekly, now exceed

SIX THOUSAND COPIES,

which we have no doubt are read by at least

TWENTY THOUSAND

persons each week, a large proportion of whom are Planters and their families.

As a means of Advertising we are confident that great advantages can be obtained through this establishment, hence we embrace this opportunity to inform our friends and the Mercantile communities on the Seaboard, (Charleston and Wilmington,) that our facilities for circulating their business Notices throughout Western North Carolina and the adjoining Districts in South Carolina are extensive and complete.

Our terms are liberal and a large deduction will be made on the bills of Contract Advertisers.

At our new stand we are better prepared to attend to the wants of the public, having a much more convenient building than the one we were formerly in, and being well provided with provender.

We have good lots for the accommodation of drovers, being prepared to accommodate any amount of horses and mules, and would be pleased to wait on any drover who may give us a call.

We have, also, a good Black-smith shop in connection with our Stables, and would be pleased to attend to the wants of the people in that line.

COFFEE! COFFEE!

IS MANUFACTURED AT M. KELLY'S Southern Excelsior Coffee Mill, Raleigh, and is equal to the best coffee. It is made of coffee, rye and chickory, and is roasted in a cylinder by machinery, and therefore is better parched than can be done by hand. Chickory is not so well known in Dixie land, but in Europe they use it to give a superior flavor to the coffee. In Germany they call it sagorah, and here we call it dandalion. In England it is so highly appreciated that they lay a duty of two pounds ten shillings sterling per hundred weight to protect the growers of it. We annex Professor Emmons' certificate to show that there is no humbug, but it is what it is represented to be:

To MR. KELLY, Sir: I have tested and used the two samples of manufactured coffee—the labelled Java and Laguira. The first equals the Rio coffee of the shops, and seems to be equally good with that kind. * * * I am satisfied that they contain nothing which is injurious to the system, and may be economically and safely used as substitutes for coffee.

E. EMMONS.

This coffee is put up in pound papers, and packed in boxes containing thirty-six pounds, unless otherwise ordered.

All orders promptly attended to by addressing M. KELLY, Raleigh, N. C.

PROSPECTUS OF THE HILLSBOROUGH RECORDER,

DEVOTED TO POLITICS, AGRICULTURE, MISCELLANY, GENERAL NEWS. PUBLISHED BY DENNIS HEARTT.

HILLSBOROUGH, N. C.

WITH the present volume the RECORDER commenced the fortieth year of its existence, the first number having been issued the 10th of February, 1820; during all which time we have labored to make our paper interesting and useful, and we hope that in these particulars we have not been altogether unsuccessful. It has been our wish to make the RECORDER a good Family Paper, devoted to Politics, Agriculture, Miscellany, General News, &c., with a view to the entertainment and improvement of the farmers and citizens of the circle in which it is distributed. Our Agricultural department we endeavor to fill with the best selections we can make from all sources, giving preference to such as will be of practical use to the farmer and cultivator; and in this particular we hope to make the RECORDER as valuable to the agriculturist as any periodical of a purely agricultural character. In our Miscellaneous department, we shall contine to be, as we have always been, careful to select such articles as will have a tendency not only to amuse, but to improve the mind and heart. While we shall be thankful to receive well-written articles to adorn our columns, we are not so ambitious of originality as not to prefer selected matter of superior merit, to loosely-written and ill-digested articles, though ornamented at the top with the coveted words—"Written expressly for the RECORDER." In our News department we shall take especial pains to present to our readers the latest intelligence; and to enable us to do so we have facilities equal to those enjoyed in any portion of the State, except those favored with telegraphic communication.

PROSPECTUS OF THE STATE JOURNAL.

HAVING become the proprietor of the Democratic Press, I have merged that paper into the STATE JOURNAL, which will be published Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

The STATE JOURNAL will advocate Democratic principles in the broadest sense, and will support and defend Democratic measures and their advocates as they are presented, and as occasion may require. In other essentials it will be my aim to make the paper, what its name denotes, a State Journal—eschewing all sectional considerations and working for the entire State and her common interests.

As soon as arrangements can be made, the whole paper shall be re-modeled and printed with new type, on good paper, and in a superior manner.

The Editorial department will be properly attended to in its various branches, and will speak for itself. Neither labor nor expense will be spared in the management of the paper.

The terms of the State Journal will be as follows:

Semi-Weekly, per annum........$400
Weekly........200

These terms will be insisted upon invariably in advance. No name will be put upon the list without the money, and all papers will be discontinued at the expiration of the time for which they have been paid, unless the subscription be renewed. I am satisfied, from years of experience, that upon no other footing can any newspaper hope to succeed.

Advertisements of a proper character will be inserted at the following rates:

One square, first insertion.......$100
Each subsequent insertion..........25 cents.

A liberal deduction on these rates for yearly advertisers in the Semi-Weekly. In the Weekly edition the full rates will be charged.

A NORTH CAROLINA PAPER THE TIMES:

A large Eight-Page Weekly, published in Greensboro, $2.00 a year; $1.00 for six months.

THE TIMES contains weekly forty columns of choice matter, specially adapted to the family circle. It is neither sectarian nor political, but by being courteous to all sects and parties, it is the constant aim of the publishers to present in its columns whatever may elevate the people and enrich the State. The publishers would earnestly appeal to the families of North Carolina to give THE TIMES a trial; try it for six months, to see if it be not as well to patronise home papers, as those from abroad; to build up home interests and a State pride, and to scatter our substance and our energies among strangers. Give THE TIMES a trial and thereby it stand upon its merits.

WHAT IS SAID OF THE TIMES.

"The Times I regard as the very first of our Southern Literary Weeklies."—Rev. C. F. Deems.

"I know of no Weekly published anywhere, that is so deserving of public patronage as the Times."—Rev. J. E. Edwards.

"There is no pandering to a vitiated taste—every article is of a moral tendency, and calculated both to amuse and instruct."—Wilmington Herald.

"One of the handsomest weekly papers published in the Union."—Spirit of the Age.

"Let the people of North Carolina encourage their own newspapers."—Raleigh Standard.

An Afflictive Occurrence.

In consequence of an unfortunate and very painful accident that befel one of the young gentlemen of our composing department, on Thursday afternoon, we failed to send off our Northern mail by the regular train that evening.

The young man—our brother-in-law,—thoughtlessly went too night the machinery of the Press, when in full motion, and his right leg was caught by the pendulum attached to the cog and instantly broken above the ankle. But for the prompt and unexpected successful efforts of the hands around the Press, in stopping the machinery and extricating the unfortune sufferer—Master HENRY MEETZE—his right leg and arm would have been horribly mangled and torn from his body.

The occurrence is a great affliction every way viewed and our friends will please bear with us until we can procure help to supply the place of our afflicted relative.

Drs. FOX, JONES, SCARR and HUTCHISON, and other gentlemen, were prompt and very kind in their efforts to relieve the sufferer, who under the skillful treatment of Dr. C. J. FOX, will, we hope, be saved the awful calamity of suffering amputation.

Personal.

W. M. SEMPLE, Esq., one of the editors of that stirling journal the New Orleans Crescent, favored us with a call on Thursday afternoon. He visits North Carolina on business connected with his paper. We were much pleased on making the acquaintance of Mr. SEMPLE.

Green Peas.

The Columbus Georgia Sun boasts of having been presented with a mess of Green Peas, fresh from the garden of Mrs. S. H. GOODMAN, of Columbus, who presented them to the editor. He is a lucky fellow.

Town Talk.

The principal topic of town talk yesterday was a report, generally circulated, to the effect that the Yankees have demanned of Gen. Lee the surrender of Savannah, and, in case of refusal, have given five days in which to remove the women and children from the city.—Augusta Constitutionalist.

A private letter from a volunteer, written in Savannah, Saturday, states that a report prevailed there that a flag of truce had been received at headquarters from the Federals demanding the surrender by Tuesday or Wednesday, or the city would be shelled.

The report, however, needs confirmation, but may be true, as it is understood that the military authorities at Savannah have prohibited the transmission of news by telegraph. Whether it be true or the reverse, we apprehend that when the Federals get it they will have it to do vi et armis.

News from Bowling Green.

Nothing of a startling character, says the Nashville Banner, has transpired at or in the vicinity of Bowling Green during the past few days. Gen. Buell, it is reported, is fortifying on the south bank of Green river. His object in throwing up fortifications at that point is no doubt to protect his troops while crossing and getting a foothold this side, from assaults of our superior cavalry and infantry. T. L. Crittenden, half frightened out of his wits at the demonstrations made against him at Bowling Green, has fallen back towards the Ohio, and is fortifying at South Carrollton, Kentucky. Gens. Buckner and Floyd are keeping a vigilant eye upon his movements. Their present headquarters are at Russelville, Ky.

Heavy Profits.

The Richmond Examiner says:

The paper mill here has divided, for three months' profits, one hundred per cent., the profits being four times their capital for the year; the woolen mill here has made one hundred per cent.; the cotton mills are coining money; and the whiskey distillers are absolutely unable to calculate their enormous profits.

Advance of the Federals.

The Memphis Avalanche learns from a correspondent that the Federal pickets had advanced to Jimtown, just 77 miles from Knoxville. The general impression, however, was that they would not advance much further for the present, though fears were entertained that the Federal cavalry would come over and seek again to interfere with the railroad track and the bridges.

Gen. Crittenden.

A number of Mississippians who visited the camp of Gen. Crittenden, at Gainsboro, to look after the comfort of their friends in the 15th Mississippi Regiment, held a meeting and passed resolutions fully exonerating Gen. George B. Crittenden from all the blame which has been attributed to him in regard to the battle at Fishing Creek.

Gen. Jeff. Thompson.

The Memphis Avalanche says it is rumored that he is to be given a new command—the entire cavalry force at Columbus. If the report is correct, the Federals may just as well make their wills, for they never can get out of the reach of the ubiquitous Jeff. Thompson, who they both fear and hate with the greatest intensity.

CONCENTRATION OF PRISONERS OF WAR. The War Department has issued orders for the removal of all the prisoners of war now held in New Orleans, Tuscaloosa, and in South Carolina, to Salisbury N. C., where commodious and comfortable prison-house have been erected for their especial accommodation. The prisons there will be under the supervision of Major Gibbs, Provost Marshal, for a long while the courteous and efficient commandant of the Confederate States prison in Richmond.

Loyalty to the South.

We concur so fully in the remarks of the Huntsville Advocate touching character, that we copy them as follows:

"We have never believed the accident of birth was the touchstone of gentility, purity, excellence, or patriotism. The highest General in our army, Samuel Cooper, Adjutant General, is of Northern birth. So is John Slidell, Minister to Europe. So are Generals Ripley, Pemberton, Whiting, Pike, Ruggles, French—all Northern by birth. Again: Scott, Cocke, Fremont, Bates, Blair, Crittenden, Stribbling, Drayton, and a host of others, Generals, members of Lincoln's Cabinet, officers of high grade in the army and navy, are Southerners by birth and education—yet are our direst enemies. So this test is a two edged sword, and is only such as will be regarded by a narrow minded bigot. There have been as many traitors to our cause of Southern birth as of Northern birth.—Casting imputations of disloyalty upon those of Northern and Foreign birth, because of that fact alone, is a poor way of displaying zeal in behalf of the Southern Confederacy."

Our army rolls, truly remarks the Milledgeville Recorder, show thousands of as good and reliable citizens, of Northern origin, battling for the South as any we have in the field. To this extent they deserve our confidence, and we are gratified to know that they possess it. Heaven forbid that by any utterance of dislike towards the Yankee tribe, we should be understood as making no exception in favor of our adopted fellow citizens.

They came among us in a season of amity, when the North and the South were connected by ties of mutual regard, and when business transactions were conducted in good faith, and to the convenience of both parties. Whoever fixed his lot among us in the past, and stands by us in the present struggle, is essentially incorporated with our institutions and feelings. Hence let no invidious distinction be made. As to the coming in of Yankees to share the fortunes of the South when the fight is over, and when our independence is established, that is altogether a different question, on which we may enlarge at another time. All that we desire to say at present is, that mere Northern birth should not form the least objection to those who are now identified with the South, and we hope that all such will feel under no restraint, or imagine that they are not cordially admitted in the body politic, without any reserve or distrust whatever. The test of fealty to the South has been established, and the past is not open to review. We hope and believe these sentiments are fully endorsed by all native Southerners. Whoever is with us now, is entitled to the right hand of fellowship.

Roman Fortitude.

The Washington (N. C.) Dispatch of Tuesday contains the following:

For months past the only daughter of Col. Robert McMillan, commander of this post, a lovely, intelligent young lady, of some 18 years, has been slowly sinking under that insiduous, fatal disease, consumption. But, Roman like, he remained at his post. Messages came that she was sinking, and though he felt and was moved by the full tide of a father's affection he would not leave the post of truth and danger to haste him for a day or two to her dying bedside, to cheer her heart in its descent to the tomb, and assure her of a reunion in "that sun bright clime."

A few mornings ago we stepped into his office to hear of any despatches received of the Burnside expedition, and he silently, as a tear gathered in his eye, handed us a note just received from his companion, anbuncing that their dead Emma was dead.

We came from the office doubly impressed with his Christian fortitude and his patriotic devotion to his country. Such men may be destroyed, but never conquered. He has our sympathies, and we feel sure the sympathy of this community, for whose defense he has labored and watched for months, while his dear daughter was dying in his distant home in Georgia.

The Burnside Expedition—The Design of its Operation.

[From the Washington Star.]

The latest information fom the Burnside expedition locates the greater portion of it off Hatteras Inlet. To-morrow's news by the Norfolk flag of tuce may possibly announce its entrance into Albemarle and Pamlico Sounds, and by Monday next we may hear that Newbern or Washington, North Carolina, or both, and taken are in Gen. B.'s possession. If "Secesh" has been able to concentrate a force that can impede his speedy progress from Newbern to Goldsboro,' that has been accomplished with remarkable secrecy, inded. Goldsboro' once at Burnside's mercy, and the great coast line of "Secch's" railroad connections will be so "done for," as that all Secessia cannot put it in working order in six months to come. The mere destruction of the bridges of the Tar and Neuse rivers will effect that so desirable object, to say nothing ot the destruction of the so many miles of trestlework within sinking distance of Goldsboro'.

[From the Baltimore South.]

Our information as to the direction taken by the the Burnside expedition is conflicting. Our own impression is that its forces have been divided, and that its attention will be directed against Roanoke Island, in Albemarle sound the Southern Key of Norfolk, against the latter city in front and possibly up the Rappahannock River. We feel quite sure that the government designs assailing a large number of points at one time, and a speedy advance of the Potomac towards Centerville may be necessitated. It is rumored that Gen. McClellan, though somewhat indisposed, has not been so ill as represented, and has been keeping up the impression of severe sickness for a purpose. His friends say that in this, as well as in other matters, he has displayed a great deal of tact and sagacity, which lead them to build largely upon the success of his plans.

The Federal troops are using balls containing a brass cup filled with powder and a poisonous substance, which explodes by means of a combustible piece of punk attached to it. The object of this diabolical projectile seems to be to so mutilate and poison every one who is hit that he cannot recover.

Yankee Telegraphic News.

We copy the following items of Northern telegraphic news from the Louisville Journal of the 4th:

PICAYUNE BUTLER TO BE PROMOTED.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—The Tribune's special says letters continue to be received from eminent bankers favoring the legal tender bill.

There is no reason to believe that Gen. Butler was assured before he left Washington, that he should have a Major-General's commission, as well as the title. He will land several brigades at a point on the Southern coast not now occupied by Union soldiers. The capture will be more important than any yet made. Secretary Stanton insisted that Butler should have what he wanted, although General McClellan disapproved it.

FORT PULASKI INVESTED.

Fort Pulaski is now thoroughly invested. Gen. Sherman daily has reported all that is done there, and will take the place when he chooses to attack it.

A Splendid Shot from Pulaski.

A letter from Lieut. Col. Hawley, of the Hartford (Conn.) Press, from Tybee gives the following incident:

Day before yesterday a party of Germans went up to Goat's Point. One of the party stood on the summit of a sand hill, perhaps a hundred yards less than a mile from Fort Pulaski (that is as near as we can get) and waived his hat. The others went back out of sight, but could see the rebels bringing a gun to bear. They warned their comrade but he would not heed. As he stood with his back to the fort, a barbette gun sent out a little cloud, then came the thunder, the rushing ball, and the rash man lay disembowelled and cut into on the sand. It was a splendid shot and could not be equalled in a month's practice.

The French Tobacco in the South.

The New York Herald says:

It is suggested in the tobacco trade, by the way, that the Government of France should be permitted to receive the large quantity of tobacco owned by it in the rebel States. We presume that a request to be allowed to do so would be attentively considered by the Government, and, if other foreign nations made no objection, would probably be granted, upon proper proof of French ownership of the property being produced. The interests of the United States would not suffer by a delivery of the tobacco, and its want is causing considerable inconvenience in France.

SIGNIFICANT.—The following telegraphic dispatch was permitted by the Government Censor, at Washington, to be sent over the wires to New York:

"Private letters received in Washington, from persons abroad, confirm the impression that the Gouernments of England, France and Spain meditate an early recognition of the independence of the Confederate States. This recognition, it will be pretended, is made in the cause of humanity."

Coming events cast their shadows before. Premonitions of what is to come are generally vouchsafed to those who are interested in the events. "The cause of humanity" is to be made the compulsory power to force our Government into terms with the Confederate States. Matters of deep national interest will shortly be developed. The above dispatch is premonition of their advent.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!
MR. EDITOR:—In the face of the troubles that environ our beloved State—now that the enemy has invaded our borders, I wish to raise a company of gentlemen of grit, for the War. Who among the many that are fattening off the misfortunes that surround us, will come forward to join? Skulks and land pirates I don't expect to Volunteer—(they will be settled with hereafter,) but the true patriot, whether he is high or low, rich or poor, will cheerfully respond, now that a necessity appeals, I have no doubt.
I don't want to be Captain, or hold any office in said Company, but I want you fellow citizens, to come forward and wipe out the taunt that, North Carolina is a "strip of land between two States." I am ready, and can be found at the store of Mr. Moody opposite the Court House from day to day until the Company is raised.

Stop the Thief.

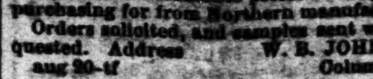

TAKEN from my Livery Stable in Raleigh, a red roan Horse, and buggy. Said horse has the "scratches" in the left hind foot, very bad, so much so that he is lamed; and he is spavined in one of his hind legs, but which is not recollected.—The man is a small, thick-set man, with fair skin and black hair, rather long. He had a black suit of clothes, well worn, and looked as if he had been a fireman or engineer on the Railroad, as his clothes were slick and greasy. I will give fifty dollars reward for the information enabling me to recover my horse and buggy.

Notice to Merchants.
FORWARDING OFFICE S. C. R. R. Co. CHARLESTON, March 18, 1861.
THE South Carolina Railroad Company having determined to discontinue this department of the service, the undersigned, who has been the forwarding Agent of the Company for the last four or five years, has associated with him the Chief Clerk in the department, and, under the name of GANTT & STONY, will continue to RECEIVE and FORWARD such articles as may be consigned to his care. He trusts, by strict personal attention, to retain a very liberal share of the business of the department.
Parties are reminded that all goods now reaching this port from points beyond the Confederate States of America, must be entered at the Custom House, and that duties are payable on such as are not purchased on or before the 28th February last, and laden on shipboard on or before the 15th March instant, save such as are on the free list. It is therefore necessary that remittances be made to pay the duties where duties are payable, AND IN ALL CASES TO COVER THE EXPENSES OF CUSTOM HOUSE ENTRY, WHETHER THE GOODS ARE FREE OR NOT. Prompt compliance will prevent delay and expense, as all articles not entered and permitted will be stored by the Custom House officers. The South Carolina Railroad Company will advance, as heretofore, the charges of freight, drayage and warfage, but not the expenses connected with the Custom House.
Rates of charges for forwarding will be very moderate, and may be had on application to GANTT & STONY, to whom all business communications should be addressed.
The undersigned refers to the officers of the South Carolina Railroad Company, to the customers of the Forwarding Department, and to all merchants of standing in the city of Charleston, and respectfully solicits a liberal share of patronage. JAMES L. GANTT.
Late Forwarding Agent S. C. R. R. Co.

PROSPECTUS
THE CHARLESTON MERCURY
A POLITICAL, COMMERCIAL, AND LITERARY NEWSPAPER
PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY
THE MERCURY gives daily reports of the Market and Marine Intelligence in Charleston, and of Charleston commerce in the leading seaports of the world. The Weekly Prices Current is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. Its connection with the "Associated Press" insures the latest intelligence by Telegraph and the earliest news by Steamers from Europe. It has an able and accomplished Correspondent in London (a gentleman connected with the editorial staff of the London Times,) and regular Correspondents in New York, Washington, Key West and Havana. The monthly New York Fashion Letters and weekly letters on Life in Washington are additional attractions in favor of its lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive.—Attention is paid to all matters of general concern, especially those in reference to the Planting and Agricultural interest, and to the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall appear in its columns which should be excluded from the family circle.
The political creed of the Mercury consists in the principles of the Democratic Party, as laid down in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799—the Sovereignty of the States; a strict construction of the Federal Constitution by the General Government, the agent of the States; Free Trade, and an economical Administration of the Government. Its policy is the Union of the Southern States in maintaining their rights.
Terms—Payable in Advance.
DAILY, per annum.............$10.00
TRI-WEEKLY.............5.00
Clubs will be Furnished as follows:
Five Copies of the DAILY for............$40.00
Five Copies of the TRI-WEEKLY............20.00
The name of no person out of Charleston will be entered on our books, unless the payment of the subscription be made in advance. Nor will orders from without the city to publish Advertisements, Marriage Notices, or Obituaries, be attended to, unless the cash, or an acceptable City reference, accompany the order. Money may always be forwarded at our risk in registered letters.
Postmasters are authorized to act as our Agents in obtaining subscribers and forwarding the money; and by sending us Five DAILY subscribers, with $40 enclosed, or Five TRI-WEEKLY subscribers, with $20 enclosed, will be entitled to an extra copy; or, if preferred, they may retain Twenty per cent. of the pre-payments, for their trouble and in lieu of the extra paper.
Out of South Carolina, no person whatever is authorized to collect debts already due to the Mercury.
In the State Mr. SAMUEL E. BURGESS is our regular Agent to make collections and procure new business and subscriptions.
In Charleston, Mr. JAMES D. BURNS, connected with the office, is our regular authorized collector, who has full power to receipt for money now due the paper and to contract for future business.
